Leatherstocking Honor Flight

A hub of the National Honor Flight Network (honorflight.org), flies Veterans, free of charge to Washington DC to visit those memorials dedicated to honor their sacrifices. Top priority is given to the most senior Veterans- survivors of WWII and any Veteran with a terminal illness who wishes to visit his or her memorial. The Leatherstocking Honor Flight provides oxygen, wheelchairs, scooters, the flights, deluxe tour bus service, tee shirts, meals, etc. free to the Veterans.

Approximate Value $550.00

Donation: $2.00 Drawing June 12, 2010

Each quilt is made by hand by a dedicated motorcyclist – labor and talent are 100% donated. To the left is the 2009 raffled quilt. Proceeds in 2009 went 100% to Gilda's Club.

Help us help our veterans.
